

American Hazelnut (Corylus americana)

- Height: Small; up to 8'-16' tall
Width: 10'-15' spread
Shape: Rounded, spreading
Growth: Fast growth rate
Light: Partial-shade or shade
Leaves: Red and yellow leaves in fall
Flowers: Yellow catkins in spring
Fruit: Multiple plants needed to pollinate; Nuts are edible and support birdlife
Soil: Prefers neutral, moist to dry, well-drained soil
Water: Medium
Drought: Moderate tolerance
Flood: Moderate tolerance
Disease: Low risk

NEW YORK
RESTORATION
PROJECT

